News, Messages, Reminders! Week beginning Mon 27th February

Little Butterflies parent consultations

Just a reminder that Charlotte will be having parent consultations for her key children on Mon 27th February. If you still need an appointment or need to rearrange, please contact the office.

Year 1 Multiskills Session

Year 1 are taking part in a multiskills PE session on Tuesday 28th February in school. They will all need to bring their PE kit in on this day please.

Swimming for Y3KB

Year 3 KB will be going swimming on a Tuesday morning from the first week after the holidays. This means PE will no longer be on a Thursday for the half term period. Children must bring: Swimming costume/swimming trunks, swimming cap (girls) and a warm coat and appropriate shoes to walk to and from Southmoor Academy.

World book day!

On Thursday 2nd March we will be celebrating World Book Day. The children will be decorating a t-shirt with their favourite book and characters. Please remember to bring your white t-shirt in on the day if you have not ordered one through school.

Year 1 Walkwise

Every Thurs morning (beginning Thurs 2nd March) for five weeks, Y1 will be taking part in Walkwise sessions where they will learn about road safety. They sometimes go outside for the sessions so please ensure your child has a coat.

Walk to Backhouse Park

On the 3rd March, year 1 will be visiting Backhouse Park all morning linked to their Science unit on plants. Please ensure children wear a warm coat and sensible shoes.

Uniform and PE Kit

Could we please remind all families that uniform should be worn for school. We would also like to thank the many families who do always send their children to school in uniform. For details, see the Uniform section of our website:

<https://grangetown.sunderland.sch.uk/For-Parents/Uniform/>

Also, could all children wear PE kit for PE, and not branded items or football strips, please. Many thanks for your valued support.
